SPIRIT WEEK

During the week of October 24-28, the halls of S.E. were filled with loads of spirit. Everyone joined in the fun. We had a variety of days; western, beach bum, S.E. t-shirt—football jersey, dress-up, halloween day. This aroused the spirit before the S.E. Tigers hosted the Cheiftains of Hopewell-Loudon in the big football game of the season.

SOPHOMORES

Being a Sophomore is a good feeling. You are not classified as a Freshman any longer. Instead of being the one picked on with Freshman jokes, you are now able to make them. When you are in the Sophomore class there is one ultimate day to look forward to, the day your class ring comes and you put it on for the first time. You also look forward to selling things to make money for the Prom and for the class trip.

Our Season was one of inconsistancy. We were up and down all year. Though our record does not show, I feel, we had a fairly successful season. The Lack of depth and youth were our worst enemies.

GIRLS VARSITY

This year's season might best be described as a year of growth. Our lack of experience was probably the major factor in our 5-16 record. The ability of the players to form a strong teambond with each other lead to an enjoyable season, however, special thanks to the seniors Dawn Smith and Missy Wright for their contributions to our program.

MIXED CHORUS

The Seneca East Mixed Chorus is a group of about sixty students who perform a large variety of music each year. During my first year with them, we sang music from J. S. Bach to Christopher Cross. We performed a Christmas Concert, Smorgasbord Program, Spring Pops Concert, contest competition as well as smaller shows for school and community groups.

TIGER CHORALIERS

The Tiger Choraliers have enjoyed a successful first year at Seneca East. During the 1983-84 school year we have performed at least two dozen programs for a variety of school and community organizations. Up-beat music, choroegraphy, cream-of-the-crop talent and a good deal of "ham" have contributed to this year's success and promises to continue to provide fine entertainment in the coming years.

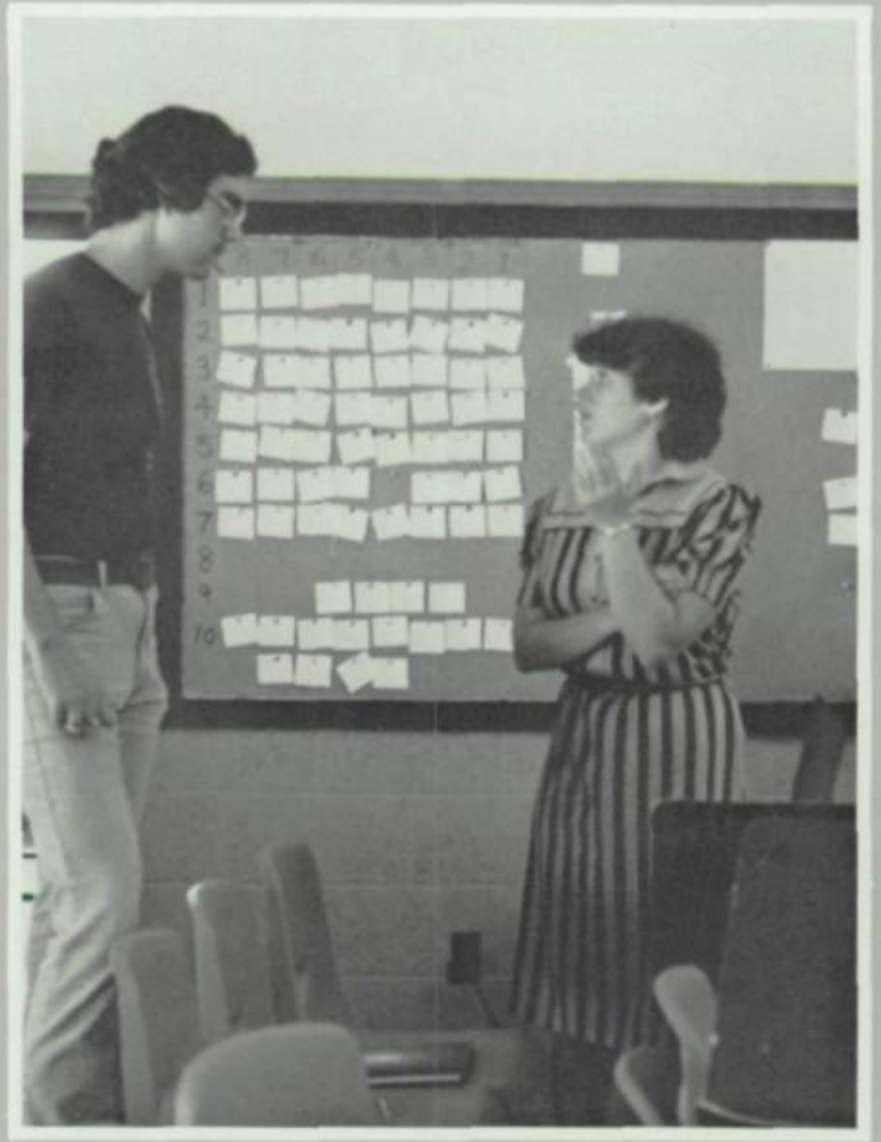
Remember boys, always smile. Singing is fun.

The Tiger Chorarliers featured a Barbershop Quartet with members from left to right Kip Bisignano, Rod Watson, Jeff Cook, and Mike Wright. They worked many hours perfecting their close harmonies, never complaining about the long hours of practice. They preformed with the Swing Choir and did concerts by themselves. They were a great success and were a joy to all that saw them.

Mike and Steph "hamming" it up at a Swing Choir concert.



No Bubbles, that's not how it is done.

SARI REPO

Sari Tina Repo arrived in the United States from her hometown of Kajaani, Finland to spend the year with Lori Drown and her family. While Sari has been here she has enjoyed participating in the girls' basketball program, she was in the musical, she was married in a mock wedding, and attended sporting events and the prom.

Sari says she enjoys school here because it is easier than school in Finland and the people here are friendly and helpful to her. Since she has arrived she has developed a taste for spaghetti and American ice cream. She also likes American TV shows and commercials. The only thing she misses about her home is her sauna. She'll be returning to spend two straight days there.

Sari will recieve an honorary diploma from her stay here at S.E. After that, she will spend a few relaxing summer months with the Drowns before returning home to Finland with many happy memories of her American friends. It has been fun having her with us.

Sari Repo from Kajaani, Finland enjoyed her stay with the Drowns and all of Seneca East.

Sari samples her mock wedding cake.

Sari could often be found typing.

The mock wedding united Sari with Jeff Mangus.

You and me baby! We're going places!

Today- Attica. Tomorrow- New York!

Penny darling, are you killed?

Little Grasshopper!

Are you happy baby?

Hats from Hathaways!

DON'T TAKE MY PENNY

November of 1983 found the students of Seneca East on stage with Don't Take My Penny. Cast members were; Annette Emery, Kim Hoyles, Pat Willman, Greg Miller, Dena Zeller, Mike Wright, Rhonda Kirgis, Todd Norcross, Deb McConnell, Gary Schaaf, Tracey Seasly, Tom Stallings, Matt Detrich, Wendi Schiefer, Heather Jackson, Shelly Bridgford, and Tursha Killinger. They were directed by Mr. D. Brenneman and Marge Gibson with Brenda Hay and Donna Willman student directing.

OKLAHOMA IN OHIO

On Friday, March 16 and Saturday, March 17, the very popular, western musical "Oklahoma!" was presented in the high school auditorium. The romantic storyline revolves around Curly (Chad Riedel) and Laurie (Connie Willman). Each loves the other but spends much time and energy pretending otherwise. Complications involving the hired hand, Jud Fry (Tim Stephens) and even Aunt Eller (Cheri Wurm) and other friends, all add tension and laughter to the plot. Comedy spices the play with the flirtatious Ado Annie (Rhonda Kirgis) and her two boyfriends, Will Parker (Mike Wright) and the peddlar Ali Hakim (Greg Miller). Other seniors in the show were; Todd Norcross as Annie's Paw, Gwen Mason as Gertie, Rod Watson, Aaron Cole, Tom Stallings, Sari Repo, Patty Willman, and senior crew were; Ellen Blum, Pat Elmlinger, Todd Nagel, Dawn Smith, and Kim Hoyles. Directors were Mrs. Carol Frankart and Miss Kathy Creasy.

The cast of OKLAHOMA!

Laurie and Curly find true love.

Will gives Ado Annie an OKLAHOMA HELLO!

The ladies support Laurie when Curly gets hooked by Gertie.

The Farmer and the Cowman fight at the box social.

Paw tells Ali that he better take care of Annie.

Laurie is tormented by villain Jud Fry.

Aunt Eller stops the fighting- "Sing it!"

Ali shows his dislike for getting the girl he doesn't want- Ado Annie.

Will brought presents for Annie and his wedding night.

Will wants "All 'er Nothin'". Annie disagrees.

The Juniors and Seniors are entertained by their baby pictures.

"Here we are! What do you think of us now?"

David Keller has the look of love.

Rod and Dana pose for memory mates.

Amy? Are you having a good time?

Prom music was provided by 4-Play.

Prom servers Kaye Sutton and Ned Walliser imitate oreo cookies.

That lawn mower needs a big jerk to start.

The 1984 Junior/ Senior Prom was a big success. The theme was "A Stroll Through a Starlit Park". The gym has never looked so nice. Blue and white streamers were used to decorate the ceiling. In one corner was a fountain with flowers and bushes surounding it. Another corner was a refreshment stand. A third corner was set up as a bridge where the memory mates of all the lovely couples were taken. For entertainment after the meal we all journey into the auditorium. The servers went to work to perform very humorous skits which had everyone rolling with laughter.

Once the skits were done the lights were turned off and the movie screen was pulled down. On the screen was shown the baby pictures of many of this years senior class members. The lights went up and it was time for the dance. Music for the Prom was provided by 4-Play. After the dance we were given time to change clothes to go bowling. Everyone had a great time at the bowling alley even if they weren't very good. To finish off the Prom we were served breakfast and returned to the school.

LET'S TAKE ANOTHER LOOK

Now that's a hot potato!

Annette Schoen and Todd Nagel were crowned Queen and King of the Junior/Senior Prom.

Nancy and Brent share time together.

SHIP AHOY!

March 26th found the members of the senior class leaving the frosty, wintery Ohio to travel to the sunny beaches of the Bahamas. Some enjoyed many firsts like the plane ride from Detroit to Florida and being south for the first time. The Dolphin IV was to be our home away from home this week. Its luxeries included a swimming pool, a disco, a telephone in every cabin, and the list goes on and on. Our first stop was in Freeport, Bahamas. Here, and in Nassau, our second stop we bought souveniers to remind us of our adventures. Some enjoyed the beaches while others toured Nassau and the US ship the USS DeWert. Later the trip took us to Florida's Walt Disney World or to the newly built Epcot center. Both places were enjoyed by the students. The class trip of 1984 was fun for everyone especially at dinner time. We were served by our own skilled waiters. Even on the rocky night not one waiter dropped anything. The meals will never be matched— some tried cold strawberry soup, snails, and lobster! Other not so adventurous eaters dined on the never fail chicken and salad. "South Pacific" was the musical we were entertained with at "Once Upon a Stage". In general the trip was something of our high school years which will be remembered.

We give you good deal! Freeport

Denny missed the punchline, again.

Thursday's Finale. Our waiters had grace and style.

Our Three Muskateers survived the stormy seas.
